

PICTORIAL REVIEW OF THE NEWS

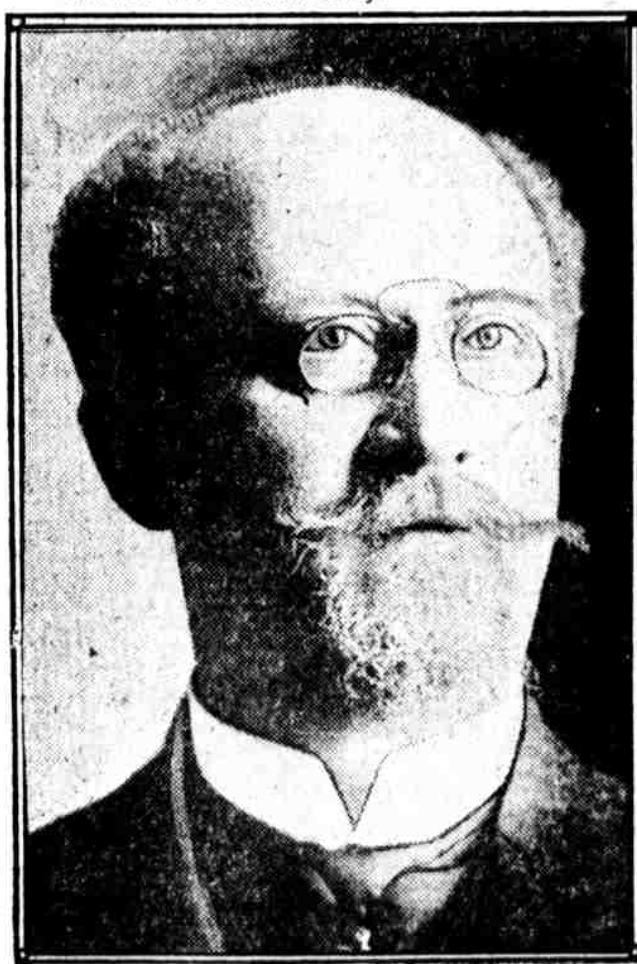

PUTS MAIDS IN UNIFORM.
Lady Randolph Churchill Has Achieved Fame In England By Dressing Her Maids In the Uniform of the British Army.

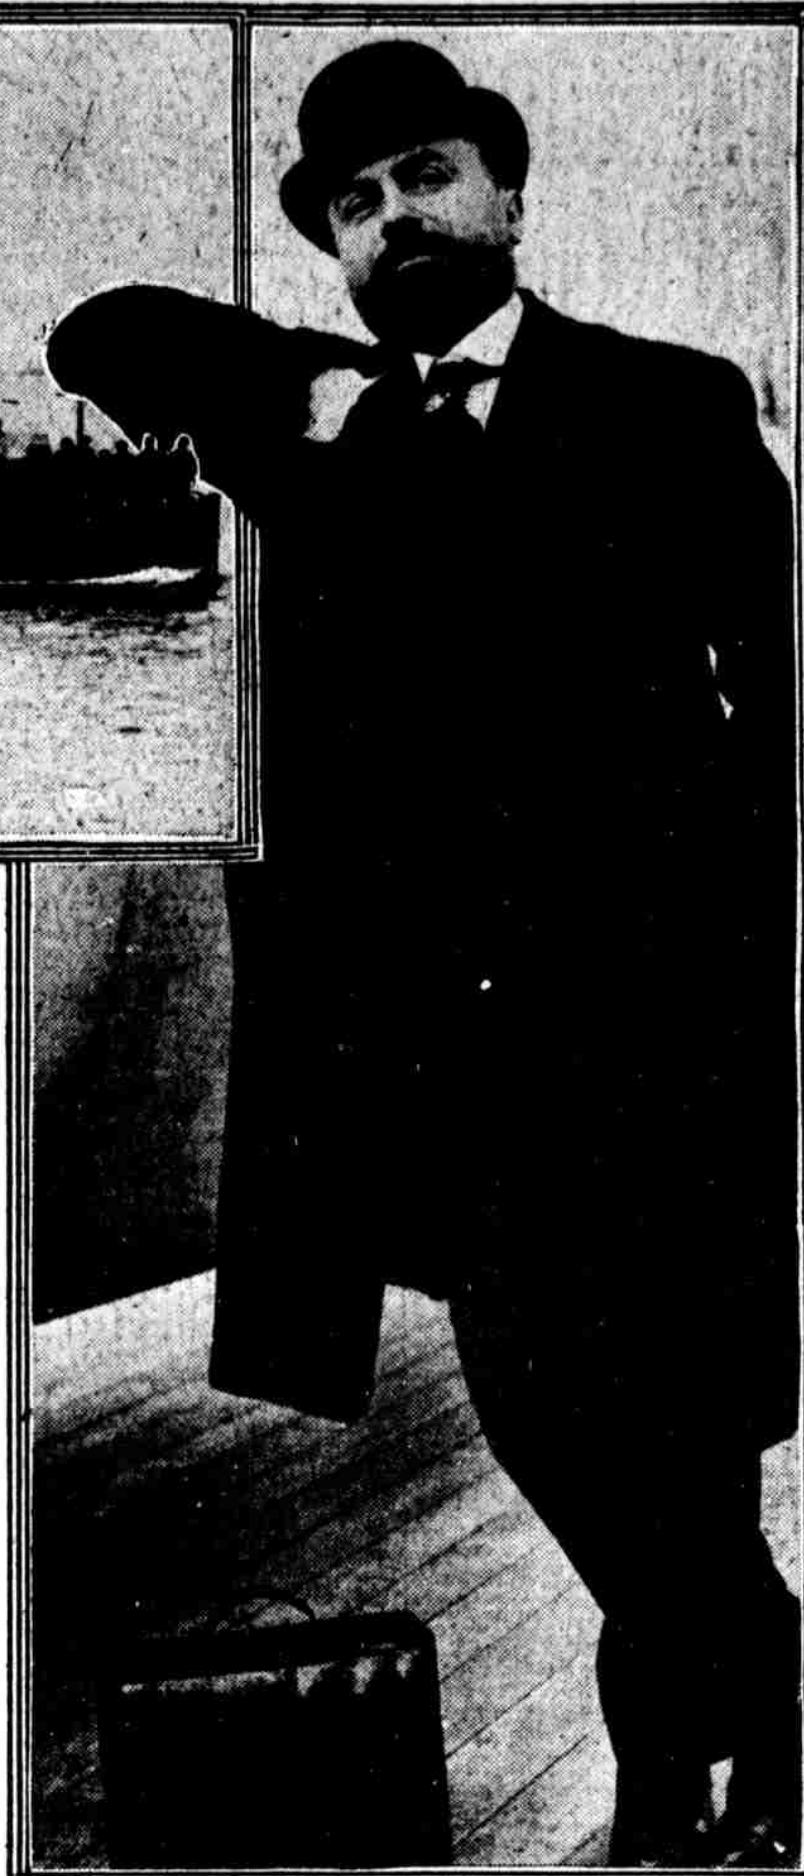

SURVIVORS OF RAID OF THE "U-29."
The Picture Shows the Rescued Crews of the British Steamers Headlands and Indian City, Which were Sunk By the Famous German Submarine U-29 In the North Sea. Scilly Lifeboats Towed Them to Safety Into the Port of St. Mary's.

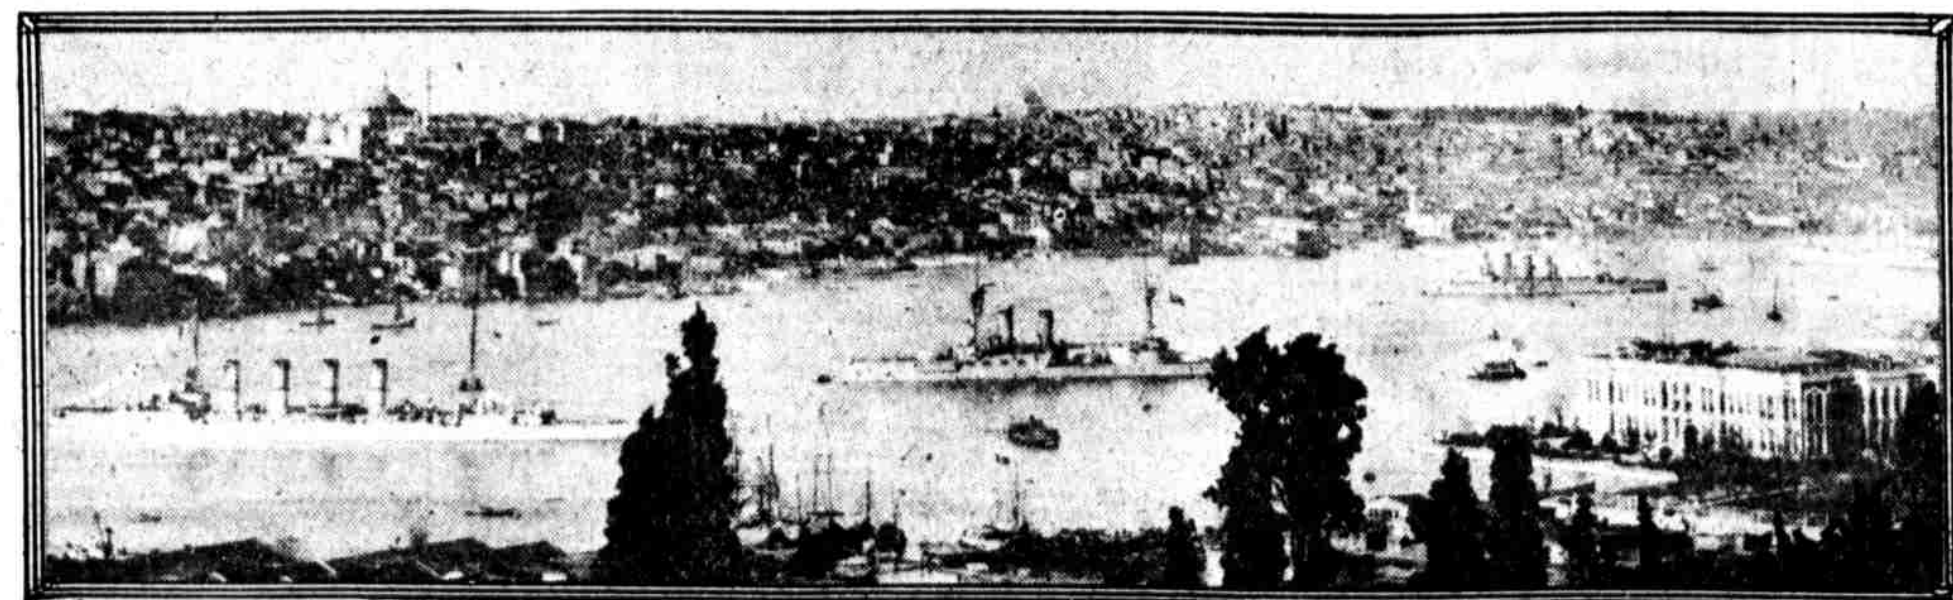

WILL DANCE TO AID BLIND.
Margaret King (left), and Hilda Carling, Who Will Give a Portrayal of Rhythmic Art April 6, Before the Society and Fashion Arbiters of New York, for the Benefit of the Blind.

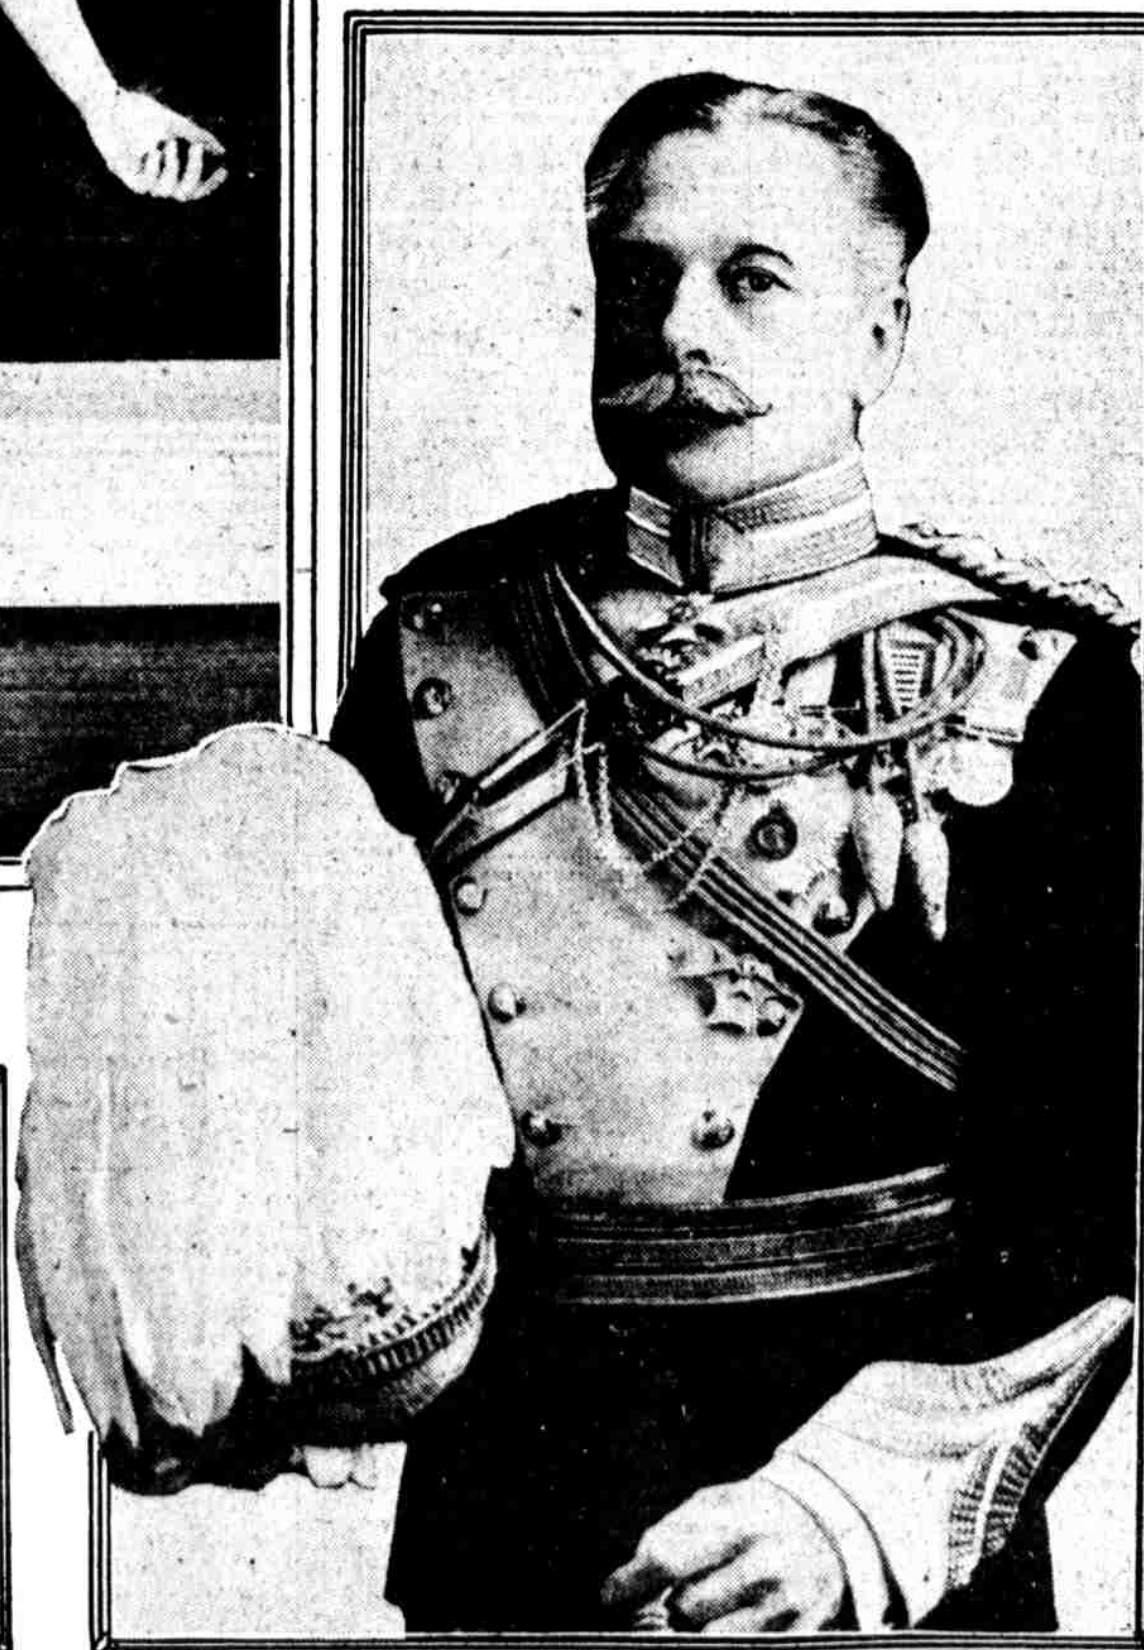

DEMANDS PEACE IN EUROPE.
Philip Scheidemann, Socialist, is Leader In the Movement In the Lower House of the German Reichstag to Bring About Peace.

MAKES PLEA FOR FEMINISM.
Jules Bois, Journalist, Chevalier of the Legion of Honor, Is in the United States to Talk on the Feminism Issue.

TURK BATTLESHIPS IN THE GOLDEN HORN AT CONSTANTINOPLE.
This Picture Taken By Henry Morgenthau, Jr., on February 18, the Day Before the Bombardment of the Dardanelles Commenced, Shows a General View of the Turkish Capital and the Golden Horn In the Foreground. On the Extreme Left Is the German Cruiser Breslau, Which Was Purchased From the Germans By the Turks. The Other Two Are Modern Turkish Battleships.

THE RIGHT ARM OF GENERAL FRENCH.
Gen. Sir Douglas Haig, Who Has Won Distinction for Gallant Service In the Nile Expedition and the South African War, Has Been Appointed First Aide to General French.